UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Case No: 15-20201-3

v.

BRANDON SIMS

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that Defendant be detained pending trial.

Part I – Findings of Fact

A. Eligibility. This case is eligible for a Detention Hearing (18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)), for the reasons checked below in this Part I A:

- ☒ (1) Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), upon the government's motion in a case that involves
- ☒ (a) a crime of violence, a violation of section 1591, or an offense listed in 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed; or

- ☐ (d) any felony if such person has been convicted of two or more offenses described in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this paragraph, or two or more State or local offenses that would have been offenses described in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this paragraph if a circumstance giving

☐ (b) a serious risk that such person will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate, or attempt to threaten, injure, or intimidate, a prospective witness or juror.

B. Rebuttable Presumption. A rebuttable presumption for detention exists in this case if reasons are checked below in this Part I B.

(1) Defendant on Release Pending Trial (18 U.S.C. § 3142 (e)(2)): A rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of another person or the community arises when

☐ (a) Defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), and has previously been convicted of a crime listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), or comparable state or local offense; and

☐ (c) A period of less than five years has elapsed since

☐ (i) the date of conviction, or

☐ (ii) Defendant's release from prison.

(2) Probable Cause Findings (18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3)): A rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required and the safety of the community arises when there is probable cause to believe that Defendant has committed an offense

- ☐ (a) for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904), the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 951-971), or Chapter 705 of Title 46; or

- ☐ (d) under Chapter 77 of Title 18, United States Code, for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 20 years or more is prescribed (i.e., 18 U.S.C. §§ 1581, 1583, 1584, 1589, and 1594)(slavery); or
- ☐ (e) involving a minor victim as listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3)(E).

Part II – Statement of the Reasons for Detention

I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes

- ☐ by clear and convincing evidence that, for the reasons set forth below, there is no condition or combination of conditions which will reasonably assure the safety of the community; or
- ☐ by a preponderance of the evidence that, for the reasons set forth below, there is no condition or combination of conditions which will reasonably assure Defendant's appearance; or
- ☒ both of the above.

Statement of reasons for detention pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 3142(i):

The government proffered evidence demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that Brandon Sims is a danger to the community, including evidence that Sims admitted to being a member of the “Related Through Money” gang, whose members are alleged in the First Superseding Indictment to have committed murder and robbery. The government proffered that he participated in and planned to participate in “smash and grab” robberies of jewelry stores, that he posted on Facebook a photograph of a Rolex watch that had been stolen, and that he asserted on a recorded telephone call that he had been riding around with an AK-47 style weapon looking for someone to rob. Further, the government presented the Court with numerous photographs that Sims posted on Facebook, each of which showed him prominently brandishing one or more firearms or various types and sizes, including an AK-47 style weapon. In this latter photograph, Sims alluded to shooting up a playground.

Additionally, Sims’ criminal history raises concerns that he will not appear as directed. Specifically, Sims committed a new crime while he was on probation and was convicted of felony escape and flight. Although this conduct is part of Sims’ juvenile record, it took place within the last four years and is therefore relevant to the question of whether he is likely to appear as directed.

Part III – Directions Regarding Detention

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. Defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of a United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver Defendant to the United States Marshal for a court appearance.

Review of this Order is governed by 18 U.S.C. § 3145 and E.D. Mich. L.R. 57.2.
